HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

November is National Family Caregivers Month. At FIU, we understand the loving juggle our university community undertakes in their day-to-day to care for loved ones.

In appreciation for all family caregivers at FIU, the Office of Employee Assistance will be celebrating caregivers on Friday, November 22 from 12 - 1 p.m. in GL-322 at MMC with a special Caring and Sharing Support Group session.

To take care of others, we must start with self-care first. Join us at the monthly Caring and Sharing Support Group sessions offered by the Office of Employee Assistance.

Together, we move forward a little lighter.
