What is the purpose of your role?

Appeals

- Parties may appeal:
  - Determination regarding responsibility and
  - Dismissal of a formal complaint or an allegation thereof

Appeal grounds

1. Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome
2. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that would affect the outcome of the matter
3. The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against parties generally or the individual party that affected the outcome of the matter
4. Other bases determined by the school, provided offered to both parties
Appeals: Section 106.45 (b)(8)

- Notify other party in writing when an appeal is filed and implement appeal procedures equally for the parties.
- Decision-maker cannot be the same person as the decision-maker at the hearing or the decision-maker who dismissed matter, the investigator, or the Title IX Coordinator.
- Appeal officer must be trained and not have bias or conflicts.
- Provide parties a reasonable, equal opportunity to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome.
- Issue a written-decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result.
- Provide the written decision simultaneously to both parties.

Process

- Follow policy
- Send letters to parties
- Pay attention to any timing requirements

Know the Process

- Read Request for Appeal
- Read Parties' Arguments
- Do any necessary homework

1) Procedural Irregularity

1. Do they identify the step of the process at issue?
2. Do they identify how it was violated?
3. Do they identify how it affected the outcome?
4. Review “travel of the case” and the procedural steps taken*
2) New Evidence
DO THEY IDENTIFY:

1. New evidence
2. That was not reasonably available at the time of determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made
3. That would affect the outcome of the matter

What happens if they do not provide the information?
3) Conflict of Interest

1. The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-maker had a conflict of interest or bias that affected the outcome of the matter.

2. For or against parties generally or against the individual party.

Conflict and Bias

Conflict
- Forces in opposition but in static applications implies irreconcilability as of duties or desires.
- A situation in which there are opposing demands or ideas, and a choice has to be made between them.
- Basically, is there a tension between your duty in the Title IX role and something else that creates an impediment to your ability to be fair and unbiased in your Title IX work.

Bias
- An unfair personal opinion that influences your judgment.
- The fact of allowing personal opinions to influence your judgment in an unfair way.
- BTW - Make sure your decisions in each case will be made consistent regardless of the party. What does this mean?

Analysis

Was it TIX, Investigator, Decision-Maker?
- Yes? Go to next step.
- No? Appeal denied.

Conflict of Interest?
- Did appellant provide information to demonstrate a conflict or bias?
- Is it reasonable?
- Do you need any further information?

Did the conflict or bias affect the outcome?
- If yes, what was it and how?

Appellant needs to provide the information to get to starting line.
Exercise

You think they have a point. Now what?

Write the Decision. Be Orderly. Be Neutral.

1. Result of the appeal and
2. The rationale for the result.

Parts of the Written Decision- One variation (long)

1. Introduction (why are we here?)
2. Nature of the appeal. What is it?
   - Appeal of complaint dismissal or outcome?
   - Also which category of appeal: New info? Procedure? Conflict?
3. Summary of the reason to grant or not grant the appeal- short form
4. Any steps taken in furtherance of making the decision (optional).
5. Rationale: Detailed explanation of the reason to grant the appeal
6. Conclusion and any next steps
Exercise

Thank you!
